

February 17, 2018 Winners of the 2017/18 Robot Programming Competition

FIRST® LEGO® League (ages 9 to 14):

- Champion 1st Place – Royal Robots – Annapolis West Educational Centre
- Champion 2nd Place – Armbrae Dragonites– Armbrae Academy
- Robot Performance Award 1st Place – Royal Robots – Annapolis West Educational Centre
- Robot Performance Award 2nd Place – Armbrae Robobits - Armbrae Academy
- Mechanical Design Award -KES - King’s-Edgehill School
- Programming Award – Hippie lEgo loV3rs –Halifax Neighbourhood Team
- Strategy and Innovation Award – Bedford Academy Broncos –Bedford Academy
- Core Values Inspiration Award – 21st Century Space Guys – Kentville Neighbourhood Team
- Core Values Teamwork Award – EPEC – Eastern Passage Education Centre
- Gracious Professionalism Award – Axe Robotics – Wolfville Community Team
- Project Research Award – Shambhala Shadow-Sparks – Shambhala School
- Project Innovative Solution Award – Shelburne Rebels – Shelburne Regional High School
- Project Presentation Award – Legobolts – Trenton Middle School
- Judges’ Award Rising Star – Moo Moo Steam – Rothesay Netherwood School, NB

Global Innovation Award Team Nominee (certificate) – Armbrae Dragonites – Armbrae Academy

Young Adult/Youth Mentor Volunteer Award – Corey Jackson – Northeast Kings Education Centre

ROBOFEST® High School Robotics Competition (ages 14 to 18):

Game Competition (AtBC)

- 1st Place – Royal Robots – Annapolis West Educational Centre
- 2nd Place – Robust Legacy – Horton High School
- 3rd Place – King’s-Edgehill School 5 – King’s-Edgehill School
- 4th Place – Horton High Robats - Horton High School

BottleSumo

- 1st Place – Royal Robots – Annapolis West Educational Centre
- 2nd Place – Horton High Robats – Horton Community Team

Outstanding Rookie Coach Award:

- (FIRST® LEGO® League) – Aaron Adams – Bedford Academy Broncos
- (ROBOFEST®) – Mary-Ellen Wilcox, Rothesay Netherwood School, NB

Outstanding Coach Awards:

- (FIRST® LEGO® League) – J’aime & Mark Steele – hippie lEgo loV3rs
- (ROBOFEST®) – Ted Champion, The Flaming Pink Flamingos - NKEC

The Lynn Chipman Memorial Outstanding Volunteer Award: Joe Cross, Michelin

Karen Wilder Award – In recognition of perseverance, resilience and courage in overcoming challenges. (named after the former Director of the Program): Richard Lewis